VOCABULARY ACQUISITION AND USE

L.3.4 Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on kindergarten reading and content.

a. Identify new meanings for familiar words and apply them accurately (e.g., knowing duck is a bird and learning the verb to duck).

b. Use the most frequently occurring inflections and affixes (e.g., -ed, -s, re-, un-, pre-, -ful, -less) as a clue to the meaning of an unknown word.

- Power Words in the digital edition help students recognize and understand new vocabulary through context clues.

COMPREHENSION AND COLLABORATION

SL.1.1 Participate in collaborative conversations with diverse partners about kindergarten topics and texts with peers and adults in small and larger groups.

a. Follow agreed-upon rules for discussions (e.g., listening to others and taking turns speaking about the topics and texts under discussion).

a. Continue a conversation through multiple exchanges.

SL.1.2 Confirm understanding of a text read aloud or information presented orally or through other media by asking and answering questions about key details and requesting clarification if something is not understood.

SL.1.3 Ask and answer questions in order to seek help, get information, or clarify something that is not understood.

- Extension activities include discussion questions that encourage critical thinking.

- Through class discussions and small-group work, teachers are encouraged to help students review information they have read.

- Students are encouraged to ask many questions about the stories and information presented in TFK, as many of the topics will be new to them.

PRESENTATION OF KNOWLEDGE AND IDEAS

SL.2.5 Add drawings or other visual displays to descriptions as desired to provide additional detail.

- When completing printables, students are provided with opportunities to use drawings to answer questions and demonstrate understanding of a topic or idea.

READING STANDARDS FOR INFORMATIONAL TEXT

KEY IDEAS AND DETAILS

RI.1.1 Ask and answer such questions as who, what, where, when, why, and how, to demonstrate understanding of key details in a text.

RI.1.2 Identify the main topic of a multiparagraph text as well as the focus of specific paragraphs within the text.

RI.1.3 Describe the connection between a series of historical events, scientific ideas or concepts, or steps in technical procedures in a text.

- TIME for Kids comes with a Teacher’s Guide, featuring lessons that ask students to dig deeper into a text’s details. Teaching materials include text-dependent and inference questions that can be woven into classroom discussions. For many stories, we provide paragraph-specific questions and discussion prompts.

- We provide Think questions for most TIME for Kids articles to help focus student reading and classroom discussion around a text’s central ideas. Teacher’s Guide lessons guide students toward a fact-based summary of a story’s main points.

- Think questions and Teacher’s Guides focus on how events, ideas, and concepts interact and develop over the course of an article. Worksheets in the printables bank support student comprehension.

CRAFT AND STRUCTURE

RI.2.4 Determine the meaning of words and phrases in a text relevant to a grade 2 topic or subject area.

RI.2.5 Know and use various text features (e.g., captions, bold print, subheadings, glossaries, indexes, electronic menus, icons) to locate key facts or information in a text efficiently.

RI.2.6 Identify the main purpose of a text, including what the author wants to answer, explain, or describe.

- Within each article, academic and domain-specific words are highlighted and defined. Close-reading questions provided to teachers support students in determining the meaning of a word while considering other contexts in which a word can be used.

- TIME for Kids stories incorporate different informational-text structures to engage readers. Close-reading and discussion questions often ask readers to locate and utilize these features to explain how they help readers develop a deeper understanding of the text.

- In the Teacher’s Guide, you will find questions that ask students to use text-based evidence and cite informational-text features as they discuss the author’s intent and how the author achieves his or her goal.

INTEGRATION OF KNOWLEDGE AND IDEAS

RI.3.7 Explain how specific images (e.g., a diagram showing how a machine works) contribute to and clarify a text.

RI.3.8 Describe how an author uses reasons to support specific points in a text.

RI.3.9 Compare and contrast the most important points presented by two texts on the same topic.

- TIME for Kids diagrams, graphs, charts, maps, and other graphic elements provide different representations of ideas and topics, helping students build content-area knowledge. Videos, slide shows, and audio read-alouds support instruction and encourage a deeper understanding of the text.

- Teacher’s Guide questions and activities challenge students to identify and evaluate the evidence and reasoning a writer uses to support claims in an informational text.

INTEGRATION OF KNOWLEDGE AND IDEAS		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Teacher’s Guide provides related resources on a given topic to enhance students’ knowledge about it. In the digital edition, search the topics archive to find related stories to spark students’ curiosity about a subject. WRITING STANDARDS

TEXT TYPES AND PURPOSES

W.1.1 Write opinion pieces in which they introduce the topic or book they are writing about, state an opinion, supply reasons that support the opinion, use linking words (e.g., because, and, also) to connect opinions and reasons, and provide a concluding statement or section.

W.1.2 Write informative/explanatory texts in which they introduce a topic, use facts and definitions to develop points, and provide a concluding statement or section.

W.1.3 Write narratives in which they recount a well-elaborated event or short sequence of events, include details to describe actions, thoughts, and feelings, use temporal words to signal event order, and provide a sense of closure.

- Teacher's Guides provide writing prompts related to TIME for Kids stories, encourage students to express their opinion on a topic, and challenge them to support their thinking with reasons and information from the text.

- Printable quizzes call on students to express their opinion through short-response writing activities.

- Teacher's Guides include writing tasks that call on students to write informative/explanatory texts based on stories in TIME for Kids.

- Reproducible worksheets in the Teacher's Guide and in the printables bank provide opportunities for writing short-answer informative/explanatory texts.

- Test Prep with TFK, provided two times per school year, includes extended-response questions that call on students to produce short informative texts based on information in a reading passage.

- Teacher's Guides provide students with opportunities to write narratives related to stories in TIME for Kids and from their own experience, challenging them to use details from the text to support their writing.

- Homework Helper, available online, guides students through the process of writing narrative texts.

PRODUCTION AND DISTRIBUTION OF WRITING

W.2.5 With guidance and support from adults and peers, focus on a topic and strengthen writing as needed by revising and editing.

W.2.6 With guidance and support from adults, use a variety of digital tools to produce and publish writing, including in collaboration with peers.

- Reproducible worksheets in the Teacher's Guides and in the printables bank can be used as a foundation on which students can build a more expansive piece of writing.

- Articles in TIME for Kids can be used as touchstone texts to model fluent and effective writing.

- TFK's Homework Helper, available online, provides an interactive format to guide students through the writing process.

RESEARCH TO BUILD AND PRESENT KNOWLEDGE

W.3.7 Participate in shared research and writing projects (e.g., read a number of books on a single topic to produce a report; record science observations).

W.3.8 Recall information from experiences or gather information from provided sources to answer a question.

- Teacher's Guide lessons prompt students to engage in short research projects based on topics featured in TIME for Kids.

- Lessons and activities in the Teacher's Guide encourage students to activate prior knowledge on topics in TIME for Kids and to utilize related resources in order to learn more about a topic.

SL.1.1 Participate in collaborative conversations with diverse partners about grade 2 topics and texts with peers and adults in small and larger groups.

a. Follow agreed-upon rules for discussions (e.g., gaining the floor in respectful ways, listening to others with care, speaking one at a time about the topics and texts under discussion).

b. Build on others' talk in conversations by linking their comments to the remarks of others.

c. Ask for clarification and further explanation as needed about the topics and texts under discussion.

SL.1.2 Recount or describe key ideas or details from a text read aloud or information presented orally or through other media.

SL.1.3 Ask and answer questions about what a speaker says in order to clarify comprehension, gather additional information, or deepen understanding of a topic or issue.

- TIME for Kids articles provide a rich foundation for one-on-one, small group, and class discussions. Think questions in the student magazine and digital edition provide a jumping-off point for focused discussion.

- Teacher's Guide lessons pose questions to expand opportunities for discussion and encourage critical thinking.

- Teacher's Guide lessons encourage students to identify a story's key ideas and details, as well as key ideas and details in videos that appear in the digital edition.

- Printable quizzes give students practice identifying key ideas and details.

- Think questions in the student magazine encourage discussion.

- Videos can be used to promote discussion of key ideas.

PRESENTATION OF KNOWLEDGE AND IDEAS

SL.2.4 Tell a story or recount an experience with appropriate facts and relevant, descriptive details, speaking audibly in coherent sentences.

SL.2.5 Create audio recordings of stories or poems; add drawings or other visual displays to stories or recounts of experiences when appropriate, to clarify ideas, thoughts, and feelings.

- Discussion questions in the Teacher's Guide encourage students to make personal connections to the text and to share their experiences with the class.

- Audio read-alouds in the digital edition, voiced by actors—not a computer program—model fluid reading and provide an example which students can emulate when making their own audio recordings.

PRESENTATION OF KNOWLEDGE AND IDEAS

c. Use context to confirm or self-correct word recognition and understanding, rereading as necessary.

- Vocabulary words are defined in the student magazine and digital edition; context clues provide additional support.

- The digital edition includes audio read-alouds by voice actors—not a computer program—in order to model fluent and expressive reading.

WRITING STANDARDS

TEXT TYPES AND PURPOSES

W.1.1 Write opinion pieces on topics or texts, supporting a point of view with reasons.

- Introduce the topic or text they are writing about, state an opinion, and create an organizational structure that lists reasons.
- Provide reasons that support the opinion.
- Use linking words and phrases (e.g., because, therefore, since, for example) to connect opinion and reasons.
- Provide a concluding statement or section.

- Teacher’s Guides and reproducible worksheets provide writing prompts about the student magazine cover story, encouraging students to express their opinion on a topic and challenging them to support their thinking with reasons and evidence from the text.

- Debate features present students with background information about an issue of interest to third graders, alongside two opposing opinions from students their same age. The feature prompts students to weigh in and to support their opinion with reasons and evidence from the text as well as from supporting documents.

- The close-reading lesson in the Teacher’s Guide includes writing activities that require students to refer back to the text and to do additional research, in order to produce their own work.

W.1.2 Write informative/explanatory texts to examine a topic and convey ideas and information clearly.

- Introduce a topic and group related information together; include illustrations when useful to aiding comprehension.
- Develop the topic with facts, definitions, and details.
- Use linking words and phrases (e.g., also, another, and, more, but) to connect ideas within categories of information.
- Provide a concluding statement or section.

- Test Prep with TFK is provided two times per school year. It includes extended-response questions that call on students to produce short informative texts based on information in a reading passage.

- Teacher’s Guides include writing tasks that call on students to write informative/explanatory texts based on feature stories in the student magazine and/or digital edition.

- Reproducible worksheets provide opportunities for writing short-answer informative/explanatory texts.

W.1.3 Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, descriptive details, and clear event sequences.

- Establish a situation and introduce a narrator and/or characters; organize an event sequence that unfolds naturally.
- Use dialogue and descriptions of actions, thoughts, and feelings to develop experiences and events or show the response of characters to situations.
- Use temporal words and phrases to signal event order.
- Provide a sense of closure.

- Teacher’s Guides provide opportunities to write narratives related to stories in the student magazine and digital edition, using details from the text to support their writing.

RESEARCH TO BUILD AND PRESENT KNOWLEDGE	W.3.7 Conduct short research projects that build knowledge about a topic. <hr/> W.3.8 Recall information from experiences or gather information from print and digital sources; take brief notes on sources and sort evidence into provided categories.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Teacher’s Guide lessons prompt students to engage in short research projects based on topics featured in the student magazine. • Lessons and activities in the Teacher’s Guide encourage students to take notes on stories they read in the student magazine and digital edition and to supplement their research with additional print and digital sources.
RANGE OF WRITING	W.4.10 Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Think questions in the student magazine and digital edition, as well as writing prompts in the Teacher’s Guide and reproducible worksheets, encourage a range of writing.

COMPREHENSION AND COLLABORATION	SL.1.1 Engage effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with diverse partners on grade 3 topics and texts, building on others’ ideas and expressing their own clearly.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Think questions in the student magazine and digital edition encourage one-on-one, small-group, and class discussions. • Teacher’s Guide lessons pose questions to expand opportunities for discussion and encourage critical thinking.

a. Come to discussions prepared, having read or studied required material; explicitly draw on that preparation and other information known about the topic to explore ideas under discussion.

a. Follow agreed-upon rules for discussions (e.g., gaining the floor in respectful ways, listening to others with care, speaking one at a time about the topics and texts under discussion).

a. Ask questions to check understanding of information presented, stay on topic, and link their comments to the remarks of others.

a. Explain their own ideas and understanding in light of the discussion.

SL.1.2 Determine the main ideas and supporting details of a text read aloud or information presented in diverse media and formats, including visually, quantitatively, and orally.

SL.1.3 Ask and answer questions about information from a speaker, offering appropriate elaboration and detail.

• Debate stories in the student magazine encourage lively discussion.

• Teacher’s Guide lessons encourage students to identify a story’s main idea, as well as the main idea of videos that appear in the digital edition.

• Weekly comprehension quizzes give students practice identifying main ideas.

• Think questions in the student magazine encourage discussion.

• Q&A articles model the types of questions to include in an interview.

PRESENTATION OF KNOWLEDGE AND IDEAS

SL.2.4 Report on a topic or text, tell a story, or recount an experience with appropriate facts and relevant, descriptive details, speaking clearly at an understandable pace.

SL.2.5 Demonstrate fluid reading at an understandable pace; add visual displays when appropriate to emphasize or enhance certain facts or details.

SL.2.6 Speak in complete sentences when appropriate to task and situation in order to provide requested detail or clarification. (See grade 3 language standards 1 and 3 here for specific expectations.)

• Close-reading lessons in the Teacher’s Guide prompt students to dive deeper into topics and texts through research, and to present findings to the class.

• Audio read-alouds in the digital edition, voiced by actors—not a computer program—model fluid reading.

• Think questions, Teacher’s Guide lessons, and other prompts stimulate discussion.

a. Use sentence-level context as a clue to the meaning of a word or phrase.

b. Determine the meaning of the new word formed when a known affix is added to a known word (e.g., agreeable/disagreeable, comfortable/uncomfortable, care/careless, heat/preheat).

c. Use a known root word as a clue to the meaning of an unknown word with the same root (e.g., company, companion).

d. Use glossaries or beginning dictionaries, both print and digital, to determine or clarify the precise meaning of key words and phrases.

L.3.5 Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships and nuances in word meanings.

a. Distinguish the literal and nonliteral meanings of words and phrases in context (e.g., take steps).

b. Identify real-life connections between words and their use (e.g., describe people who are friendly or helpful).

c. Distinguish shades of meaning among related words that describe states of mind or degrees of certainty (e.g., knew, believed, suspected, heard, wondered).

L.3.6 Acquire and use accurately grade-appropriate conversational, general academic, and domain-specific words and phrases, including those that signal spatial and temporal relationships (e.g., “After dinner that night, we went looking for them”).

- Vocabulary words are highlighted in the student magazine and digital edition and defined in Power Words boxes.

- In the digital edition, Power Words are read aloud and include a sentence and photo.

- Teacher’s Guide lessons encourage students to use context clues to understand unfamiliar words.

- Examples of figurative language are often called out in the Teacher’s Guide in order to enhance student understanding.

- Articles in the student magazine include both general academic and domain-specific words.

- Teacher’s Guide lessons often focus on such words and challenge students to define them and use them in their own work.

WRITING STANDARDS

TEXT TYPES AND PURPOSES

W.1.1 Write opinion pieces on topics or texts, supporting a point of view with reasons and information.

a. Introduce a topic or text clearly, state an opinion, and create an organizational structure in which related ideas are grouped to support the writer’s purpose.

b. Provide reasons that are supported by facts and details.

c. Link opinion and reasons using words and phrases (e.g., for instance, in order to, in addition).

d. Provide a concluding statement or section related to the opinion presented.

- Teacher’s Guides and reproducible worksheets provide writing prompts about the student magazine cover story, encouraging students to express their opinion on a topic and challenging them to support their thinking with reasons and information from the text.

- Debate features present students with background information about an issue of interest to fourth graders, alongside two opposing opinions from students their age. The feature prompts students to weigh in and to support their opinion with reasons, facts, and details from the text as well as from supporting documents.

- The close-reading lesson in the Teacher’s Guide includes writing activities that require students to refer back to the text and to do additional research, in order to produce their own work.

W.1.2 Write informative/explanatory texts to examine a topic and convey ideas and information clearly.

a. Introduce a topic clearly and group related information in paragraphs and sections; include formatting (e.g., headings), illustrations, and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension.

b. Develop the topic with facts, definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples related to the topic.

c. Link ideas within categories of information using words and phrases (e.g., another, for example, also, because).

d. Use precise language and domain-specific vocabulary to inform about or explain the topic.

e. Provide a concluding statement or section related to the information or explanation presented.

- Weekly printable quizzes include a short-answer question that calls on students to incorporate facts and details from the reading to support their thinking.

- Test Prep with TFK is provided two times per school year. It includes extended-response questions that call on students to produce short informative texts based on information in a reading passage.

- Teacher’s Guides include writing tasks that call on students to write informative/explanatory texts based on feature stories in the student magazine and/or digital edition.

- Reproducible worksheets provide opportunities for writing short-answer informative/explanatory texts.

SL.2.4 Report on a topic or text, tell a story, or recount an experience in an organized manner, using appropriate facts and relevant, descriptive details to support main ideas or themes; speak clearly at an understandable pace.

SL.2.5 Add audio recordings and visual displays to presentations when appropriate to enhance the development of main ideas or themes.

SL.2.6 Differentiate between contexts that call for formal English (e.g., presenting ideas) and situations where informal discourse is appropriate (e.g., small-group discussion); use formal English when appropriate to task and situation. (See grade 4 language standard 1 for specific expectations.)

- Close-reading lessons in the Teacher’s Guide prompt students to dive deeper into topics and texts through research and to present findings to the class.

- Audio read-alouds in the digital edition, voiced by actors—not a computer program—model fluid reading and model for students how to make their own audio recordings.

- Articles in the student magazine, and prompts in the Teacher’s Guide lessons, stimulate formal and informal discussions.

LANGUAGE STANDARDS

L.1.1 Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.

- a. Demonstrate legible cursive writing skills.
- b. Use relative pronouns (who, whose, whom, which, that) and relative adverbs (where, when, why).
- c. Form and use the progressive (e.g., I was walking; I am walking; I will be walking) verb tenses.
- d. Use modal auxiliaries (e.g., can, may, must) to convey various conditions.
- e. Order adjectives within sentences according to conventional patterns (e.g., “a small red bag rather than a red small bag”).
- f. Form and use prepositional phrases.
- g. Produce complete sentences, recognizing and correcting inappropriate fragments and run-ons.
- h. Correctly use frequently confused words (e.g., to, too, two; there, their).

L.1.2 Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.

- a. Use correct capitalization.
- b. Use commas and quotation marks to mark direct speech and quotations from a text.
- c. Use commas before a coordinating conjunction in a compound sentence.
- d. Spell grade-appropriate words correctly, consulting references as needed.

- Articles in the student magazine and digital edition provide opportunities for students to demonstrate their understanding of standard grammar in both writing and speaking.

- Audio read-alouds and videos in the digital edition model standard English grammar and usage.

- Test Prep with TFK, issued two times per school year, assesses students’ responses to short-answer writing prompts.

- The student magazine and digital editions can be used as exemplar texts for proper capitalization, punctuation, and spelling.

- Weekly printable quizzes call on students to respond to writing prompts.

TIME for Kids offers a rich selection of articles, multimedia, and teaching resources to help you meet Florida standards in English language arts. Take a look at how TIME for Kids addresses these standards.

READING STANDARDS FOR INFORMATIONAL TEXT

RI.1.1 Quote accurately from a text when explaining what the text says explicitly and when drawing inferences from the text.

RI.1.2 Determine two or more main ideas of a text and explain how they are supported by key details; summarize the text.

RI.1.3 Explain the relationships or interactions between two or more individuals, events, ideas, or concepts in a historical, scientific, or technical text based on specific information in the text.

- Each issue of TIME for Kids comes with a Teacher’s Guide, featuring lessons that develop students’ nonfiction reading skills.

- Teaching materials include literal and inference questions that ask students to dig deeper into a text’s details. Students are challenged to identify evidence, including exact quotes, to support their understanding and analysis.

- With top stories, we provide step-by-step close-reading support, with paragraph-specific questions and discussion prompts. The digital edition includes additional Common Core–aligned lessons that challenge students to analyze texts with discussion and writing prompts.

- Most TIME for Kids articles include Think questions to focus student reading and classroom discussion around a text’s central ideas. Teacher’s Guide lessons guide students toward identifying the main ideas and supporting details in a text.

- Think questions and Teacher’s Guides focus on how individuals, events, and ideas interact and develop over the course of an article. Graphic organizers support student comprehension and help readers analyze complex relationships within a text.

CRAFT AND STRUCTURE

RI.2.4 Determine the meaning of general academic and domain-specific words and phrases in a text relevant to a grade 5 topic or subject area.

RI.2.5 Compare and contrast the overall structure (e.g., chronology, comparison, cause-effect, problem-solution) of events, ideas, concepts, or information in two or more texts.

RI.2.6 Analyze multiple accounts of the same event or topic, noting important similarities and differences in the point of view they represent.

- Within each article, academic and domain-specific words are highlighted and defined. Close-reading questions provided to teachers help support students in using context clues to determine the meaning of a word.

- TIME for Kids stories utilize different informational-text structures (chronology, comparison, cause-effect, problem-solution) to engage readers. Close-reading and discussion questions often ask readers to compare and contrast how particular events or ideas are presented in related texts.

- In TIME for Kids, you will find opinion pieces on debatable issues, with kids from across the country weighing in. Accompanying stories provide context and background information so that students can speak or write knowledgeably about a topic, analyze a writer’s point of view, and critique the strength of supporting evidence.

INTEGRATION OF KNOWLEDGE AND IDEAS	RI.3.7 Draw on information from multiple print or digital sources, demonstrating the ability to locate an answer to a question quickly or to solve a problem efficiently. RI.3.8 Explain how an author uses reasons and evidence to support particular points in a text, identifying which reasons and evidence support which point(s). RI.3.9 Integrate information from several texts on the same topic in order to write or speak about the subject knowledgeably.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • TIME for Kids videos, slide shows, and audio read-alouds of longer articles provide multiple opportunities for students to compare and contrast information from digital sources. With access to different representations of ideas and topics across several forms of multimedia, students can build content-area knowledge. • Teacher’s Guide questions and activities challenge students to identify and evaluate the evidence and reasoning a writer uses to support claims in an informational text. When they read debate stories, students are asked to determine whose point of view was the most persuasive, looking specifically at the points a writer makes in constructing an argument. • TIME for Kids often provides two or more articles on the same topic to deepen students’ knowledge about a subject. Related TIME for Kids stories can be used to spark students’ curiosity about a topic and provide opportunities for them to integrate and synthesize information from multiple sources. Teacher’s Guide materials recommend writing prompts, research projects, and other learning extensions for students.
RANGE OF READING AND LEVEL OF TEXT COMPLEXITY	RI.4.10 By the end of the year, read and comprehend informational texts, including history/social studies, science, and technical texts, at the high end of the grades 4–5 text complexity band independently and proficiently.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • TIME for Kids offers a diversity of informational texts, including stories that focus on history and social studies topics, science, and technical texts. • Feature stories are written at a grade-appropriate Lexile level, using grade-appropriate words and sentence structure. • The digital edition offers feature stories at two Lexile levels to meet the needs of diverse learners.

FLUENCY

RF.4.4 Read with sufficient accuracy and fluency to support comprehension.

- a. Read on-level text with purpose and understanding.
- b. Read on-level prose and poetry orally with accuracy, appropriate rate, and expression on successive readings.
- c. Use context to confirm or self-correct word recognition and understanding, rereading as necessary.

- Cover stories in the student magazine are written at a grade-appropriate Lexile level; the digital edition provides alternative-reading-level articles in order to meet the needs of students reading at a lower Lexile level and differentiate instruction.

- Vocabulary words are defined in the student magazine and digital edition; context clues provide additional support.

- The digital edition includes audio read-alouds by voice actors—not a computer program—in order to model fluent and expressive reading.

WRITING STANDARDS

TEXT TYPES AND PURPOSES

W.1.1 Write opinion pieces on topics or texts, supporting a point of view with reasons and information.

- a. Introduce a topic or text clearly, state an opinion, and create an organizational structure in which ideas are logically grouped to support the writer's purpose.
- b. Provide logically ordered reasons that are supported by facts and details.
- c. Link opinion and reasons using words, phrases, and clauses (e.g., consequently, specifically).
- d. Provide a concluding statement or section related to the opinion presented.

- Teacher's Guides and reproducible worksheets provide writing prompts about the student magazine cover story.

- Prompts encourage students to express their opinion on a topic and challenge them to support their thinking with reasons and evidence from the text. Students are asked to use a clear organizational structure and transitions in their responses.

- Debate features present students with background information about an issue of interest to fifth graders, alongside two opposing opinions from students their age. Students are encouraged to use the features as mentor texts when crafting their own opinion pieces.

- Close-reading lessons include writing activities that require students to refer back to the text and do additional research, in order to produce their own work.

- Writing prompts ask students to take a stance and support their opinion with reasons and evidence from the text, as well as from supporting documents.

W.1.2 Write informative/explanatory texts to examine a topic and convey ideas and information clearly.

- e. Introduce a topic clearly, provide a general observation and focus, and group related information logically; include formatting (e.g., headings), illustrations, and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension.
- f. Develop the topic with facts, definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples related to the topic.
- g. Link ideas within and across categories of information using words, phrases, and clauses

- Test Prep with TFK is provided two times per school year. It includes extended-response questions that call on students to produce short informative texts based on information in a reading passage.

- Teacher's Guides include writing tasks that call on students to write informative/explanatory texts based on feature stories in the student magazine and/or digital edition.

- Students are encouraged to use a clear organizational structure in their responses, including a topic sentence, supporting details, and transitions, as well as domain-

(e.g., in contrast, especially).

h. Use precise language and domain-specific vocabulary to inform about or explain the topic.

i. Provide a concluding statement or section related to the information or explanation presented.

W.1.3 Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, descriptive details, and clear event sequences.

j. Orient the reader by establishing a situation and introducing a narrator and/or characters; organize an event sequence that unfolds naturally.

k. Use narrative techniques, such as dialogue, description, and pacing, to develop experiences and events or show the responses of characters to situations.

l. Use a variety of transitional words, phrases, and clauses to manage the sequence of events.

m. Use concrete words and phrases and sensory details to convey experiences and events precisely.

n. Provide a conclusion that follows from the narrated experiences or events.

specific vocabulary.

- Articles in the student magazine and digital edition can be used as touchstone texts that demonstrate various organizational structures, including compare-contrast and cause-effect.

- Reproducible worksheets provide opportunities for writing short-answer informative/explanatory texts.

- Teacher's Guides provide opportunities to write narratives related to stories in the student magazine and digital edition, using details from the text to support their writing.

- When writing narratives, students are encouraged to develop an event sequence and a set of characters. They are also asked to integrate narrative techniques and sensory details to enliven their writing.

W.2.4 Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development and organization are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. (Grade-specific expectations for writing types are defined in standards 1–3 above.)

W.2.5 With guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach. (Editing for conventions should demonstrate command of language standards 1–3 up to and including grade 5 here.)

- Teacher's Guides include writing tasks that call on students to write for a particular purpose and audience. Students are challenged to follow the conventions of a specific genre, including persuasive, informative, and narrative writing.

- TIME for Kids Debate features guide students through the process of submitting their writing for consideration for possible publication.

- Teacher's Guide lessons and reproducible worksheets guide students through the writing process, including planning, drafting, revising, and publishing.

- Articles in the student magazine and digital edition can be used as touchstone texts that demonstrate fluent and effective writing. These pieces can be used as models throughout the writing process.

PRODUCTION AND DISTRIBUTION OF WRITING	W.2.6 With some guidance and support from adults, use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing as well as to interact and collaborate with others; demonstrate sufficient command of keyboarding skills to type a minimum of two pages in a single sitting.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Some reproducible worksheets, including graphic organizers, guide students through the process of how to share their work with a wider audience. • TFK’s Homework Helper, available online, provides an interactive format to guide students through the writing process.

- Students are encouraged to prepare for discussions by gathering relevant details from stories published in the student magazine and digital edition, as well as their own research. Some activities include guidelines to foster lively and respectful discourse about controversial topics.

- Debate stories in the student magazine encourage lively discussion and academic discourse on topics appropriate for fifth-grade students.

- Teacher's Guide lessons encourage students to provide a summary of written stories, which often include information presented in diverse formats.

- Students are often asked to summarize, as well as identify the main idea and supporting details, of information presented in videos that appear in the digital edition.

- Weekly comprehension quizzes give students practice identifying main ideas.

- Think questions and lessons in the student magazine and digital e-edition encourage discussion. Students are asked to cite reasons and evidence from the text when participating in a range of conversations.

SL.2.4 Report on a topic or text or present an opinion, sequencing ideas logically and using appropriate facts and relevant, descriptive details to support main ideas or themes; speak clearly at an understandable pace.

SL.2.5 Include multimedia components (e.g., graphics, sound) and visual displays in presentations when appropriate to enhance the development of main ideas or themes.

SL.2.6 Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, using formal English when appropriate to task and situation. (See grade 5 language standards 1 and 3 here for specific expectations.)

- Lessons in the Teacher's Guide and digital edition prompt students to dive deeper into topics and texts through research. Students are then asked to present findings to the class.

- Audio read-alouds in the digital edition, voiced by actors—not a computer program—model fluid reading.

- Some lessons and activities call upon students to display their knowledge through visual and multimedia components.

- Think questions, Teacher's Guide lessons, and other prompts stimulate discussion. Students are asked to follow particular guidelines, including using academic English and domain-specific vocabulary.

Consult reference materials (e.g., dictionaries, glossaries, thesauruses), both print and digital, to find the pronunciation and determine or clarify the precise meaning of key words and phrases. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Vocabulary words are highlighted in the student magazine and digital edition and defined in Power Words boxes. • In the digital edition, Power Words are read aloud and include a sentence and photo. • Teacher’s Guide lessons encourage students to use context clues, as well as common affixes and roots, to understand unfamiliar words.

L.3.5 Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings.

f. Interpret figurative language, including similes and metaphors, in context.

g. Recognize and explain the meaning of common idioms, adages, and proverbs.

h. Use the relationship between particular words (e.g., synonyms, antonyms, homographs) to better understand each of the words.

L.3.6 Acquire and use accurately grade-appropriate general academic and domain-specific words and phrases, including those that signal contrast, addition, and other logical relationships (e.g., however, although, nevertheless, similarly, moreover, in addition).

- Articles in the student magazine and digital edition often include examples of figurative language and common idioms, which can be used as a model for language instruction.

- Teacher's Guide lessons are designed to enhance student understanding of figurative language and word relationships.

- Weekly print and digital quizzes include questions that test students' understanding of language use and vocabulary.

- Articles in the student magazine include both general academic and domain-specific words.

- Teacher's Guide lessons often focus on such words and challenge students to define them and use them in their own work.

TIME for Kids offers a rich selection of articles, multimedia, and teaching resources to help you meet Florida standards in English language arts.

Take a look at how TIME for Kids addresses these standards.

READING STANDARDS FOR INFORMATIONAL TEXT

RI.1.1 Cite textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.

RI.1.2 Determine a central idea of a text and how it is conveyed through particular details; provide a summary of the text distinct from personal opinions or judgments.

RI.1.3 Analyze in detail how a key individual, event, or idea is introduced, illustrated, and elaborated in a text (e.g., through examples or anecdotes).

- Each issue of TIME for Kids comes with a Teacher’s Guide, featuring lessons that develop students’ nonfiction reading skills. Teaching materials include literal and inference questions that ask students to dig deeper into a text’s details. Students are challenged to identify evidence, including exact quotes, to support their understanding and analysis.

- With top stories, we provide step-by-step close-reading support, with paragraph-specific questions and discussion prompts. The digital edition includes additional Common Core–aligned lessons that challenge students to analyze texts with discussion and writing prompts.

- Most TIME for Kids articles include Think questions to focus student reading and classroom discussion around a text’s central ideas. Teacher’s Guide lessons guide students toward identifying the main ideas and supporting details in a text.

- Think questions and Teacher’s Guides focus on how individuals, events, and ideas interact and develop over the course of an article. Graphic organizers support student comprehension and help readers analyze complex relationships within a text.

CRAFT AND STRUCTURE

RI.2.4 Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including figurative, connotative, and technical meanings.

RI.2.5 Analyze how a particular sentence, paragraph, chapter, or section fits into the overall structure of a text and contributes to the development of the ideas.

RI.2.6 Determine an author’s point of view or purpose in a text and explain how it is conveyed in the text.

- Within each article, academic and domain-specific words are highlighted and defined. Close-reading questions provided to teachers support students in using context clues to determine the meaning of a word.

- TIME for Kids stories utilize different informational-text structures (chronology, comparison, cause-effect, problem-solution) to engage readers. Close-reading and discussion questions often ask readers to compare and contrast how particular events or ideas are presented in related texts.

- In TIME for Kids, you will find opinion pieces on debatable issues, with kids from across the country weighing in. Accompanying stories provide context and background information so that students can speak or write knowledgeably about a topic, analyze a writer’s point of view, and critique the strength of supporting evidence.

INTEGRATION OF KNOWLEDGE AND IDEAS	RI.3.7 Integrate information presented in different media or formats (e.g., visually, quantitatively) as well as in words to develop a coherent understanding of a topic or issue. RI.3.8 Trace and evaluate the argument and specific claims in a text, distinguishing claims that are supported by reasons and evidence from claims that are not. RI.3.9 Compare and contrast one author’s presentation of events with that of another (e.g., a memoir written by and a biography on the same person).	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • TIME for Kids videos, slide shows, and audio read-alouds provide multiple opportunities for students to compare and contrast information from digital sources. With access to different representations of ideas and topics across several forms of multimedia, students can build content-area knowledge. • Teacher’s Guide questions and activities challenge students to identify and evaluate the evidence and reasoning a writer uses to support claims in an informational text. When they read debate stories, students are asked to determine whose point of view was the most persuasive, looking specifically at the points a writer makes in constructing an argument. • TIME for Kids often provides two or more articles on the same topic to deepen students’ knowledge about a subject. Use related TIME for Kids stories to spark students’ curiosity about a topic and provide opportunities for students to integrate and synthesize information from multiple sources. Teacher’s Guide materials recommend writing prompts, research projects, and other learning extensions for students.
RANGE OF READING AND LEVEL OF TEXT COMPLEXITY	RI.4.10 By the end of the year, read and comprehend literary nonfiction in the grades 6–8 text complexity band proficiently, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the range.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Stories are written at a grade-appropriate Lexile level, using grade-appropriate words and sentence structure. • The digital edition offers stories at multiple Lexile levels to meet the needs of diverse learners.

W.1.2 Write informative/explanatory texts to examine a topic and convey ideas, concepts, and information through the selection, organization, and analysis of relevant content.

f. Introduce a topic; organize ideas, concepts, and information, using strategies such as definition, classification, comparison-contrast, and cause-effect; include formatting (e.g., headings), graphics (e.g., charts, tables), and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension.

g. Develop the topic with relevant facts, definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples.

h. Use appropriate transitions to clarify the relationships among ideas and concepts.

i. Use precise language and domain-specific vocabulary to inform about or explain the topic.

j. Establish and maintain a formal style.

k. Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from the information or explanation presented.

W.1.3 Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, relevant descriptive details, and well-structured event sequences.

l. Engage and orient the reader by establishing a context and introducing a narrator and/or characters; organize an event sequence that unfolds naturally and logically.

m. Use narrative techniques, such as dialogue, pacing, and description, to develop experiences, events, and/or characters.

n. Use a variety of transition words, phrases, and clauses to convey sequence and signal shifts from one time frame or setting to another.

o. Use precise words and phrases, relevant descriptive details, and sensory language to convey experiences and events.

p. Provide a conclusion that follows from the narrated experiences or events.

additional research, using credible sources, in order to produce their own work.

- Writing prompts ask students to take a stance and support their opinion with reasons and evidence from the text, as well as from supporting documents.

- Test Prep with TFK is provided two times per school year. It includes extended-response questions that call on students to produce short informative texts based on information in a reading passage.

- Teacher’s Guides include writing tasks that call on students to write informative/explanatory texts based on stories in the student magazine and/or digital edition.

- Students are encouraged to use a clear organizational structure in their responses, including a topic sentence, supporting details, and transitions, as well as domain-specific vocabulary.

- Articles in the student magazine and digital edition can be used as touchstone texts that demonstrate various organizational structures, including compare-contrast and cause-effect.

- Reproducible worksheets provide opportunities for writing short-answer informative/explanatory texts.

- Teacher’s Guides provide opportunities to write narratives related to stories in the student magazine and digital edition, using details from the text to support their writing.

- When writing narratives, students are encouraged to develop well-structured event sequences and believable characters. They are also asked to integrate narrative techniques and sensory details to enliven their writing.

W.2.4 Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. (Grade-specific expectations for writing types are defined in standards 1–3 above.)

W.2.5 With some guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach.

W.2.6 Use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing as well as to interact and collaborate with others; demonstrate sufficient command of keyboarding skills to type a minimum of three pages in a single sitting.

- Teacher’s Guides include writing tasks that call on students to write for a particular purpose and audience. Students are challenged to follow the conventions of a specific genre, including persuasive, informative, and narrative writing.

- TIME for Kids Debate features guide students through the process of submitting their writing for consideration for possible publication.

- Teacher’s Guides lessons and reproducible worksheets guide students through the writing process, including planning, drafting, revising, and publishing.

- Articles in the student magazine and digital edition can be used as touchstone texts that demonstrate fluent and effective writing. These pieces can be used as models throughout the writing process.

- Some reproducible worksheets, including graphic organizers, guide students through the process of how to share their work with a wider audience.

W.3.7 Conduct short research projects to answer a question, drawing on several sources and refocusing the inquiry when appropriate.

W.3.8 Gather relevant information from multiple print and digital sources; assess the credibility of each source; and quote or paraphrase the data and conclusions of others while avoiding plagiarism and providing basic bibliographic information for sources.

W.3.9 Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research.

q. Apply grade 6 reading standards to literature (e.g., “Compare and contrast texts in different forms or genres [e.g., stories and poems; historical novels and fantasy stories] in terms of their approaches to similar themes and topics”).

r. Apply grade 6 reading standards to literary nonfiction (e.g., “Trace and evaluate the argument and specific claims in a text, distinguishing claims that are supported by reasons and evidence from claims that are not”).

- Teacher’s Guide lessons prompt students to engage in short research projects based on topics featured in the student magazine and digital edition.

- Lessons and activities in the Teacher’s Guide encourage students to take notes on stories they read in the student magazine and digital edition, and to supplement their research with additional print and digital sources.

- Students are challenged to conduct research using credible sources. They are asked to summarize and synthesize the information they gather and provide a list of sources.

- Teacher’s Guide lessons and activities ask students to analyze character traits of individuals profiled in articles published in the student magazine and digital edition.

- Students are called on to identify the character traits and explain how the author uses evidence to support each trait. They are also challenged to compare two or more individuals in a particular story or across two stories.

W.4.10 Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.

- Think questions in the student magazine and digital edition, as well as writing prompts in the Teacher's Guide and reproducible worksheets, encourage writing for a wide range of genres, purposes, and audiences.

SL.1.1 Engage effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with diverse partners on grade 6 topics, texts, and issues, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly.

a. Come to discussions prepared, having read or studied required material; explicitly draw on that preparation by referring to evidence on the topic, text, or issue to probe and reflect on ideas under discussion.

b. Follow rules for collegial discussions, set specific goals and deadlines, and define individual roles as needed.

c. Pose and respond to specific questions with elaboration and detail by making comments that contribute to the topic, text, or issue under discussion.

d. Review the key ideas expressed and demonstrate understanding of multiple perspectives through reflection and paraphrasing.

SL.1.2 Interpret information presented in diverse media and formats (e.g., visually, quantitatively, orally) and explain how it contributes to a topic, text, or issue under study.

SL.1.3 Delineate a speaker's argument and specific claims, distinguishing claims that are supported by reasons and evidence from claims that are not.

- Think questions in the student magazine and digital editions encourage one-on-one, small-group, and class discussions.

- Teacher's Guide lessons pose questions to expand opportunities for discussion and encourage critical thinking. Students are asked to reflect on their peers' ideas and the evidence presented during discussions in order to foster critical thinking and supportive learning environments.

- Students are encouraged to prepare for discussions by gathering relevant details from stories published in the student magazine and digital edition, as well as posing open-ended questions. Some activities include guidelines to foster lively and respectful discourse about controversial topics.

- Debate stories in the student magazine encourage lively discussion and academic discourse on topics appropriate for sixth-grade students.

- Teacher's Guide lessons reinforce comprehension and encourage students to analyze information in articles, charts, photos, and videos published in the student magazine and digital edition.

- Students are often asked to summarize, as well as identify the main idea and supporting details of, information presented in videos that appear in the digital edition.

- Debate features present students with background information about an issue of interest to sixth graders. Students can use the features to prepare for debate or discussion in a range of formats. Listeners can assess speakers' argument, as well as their use of evidence to support claims.

- Think questions and lessons in the student magazine and digital edition encourage discussion. Students are asked to cite reasons and evidence from the text when participating in a range of conversations.

SL.2.4 Present claims and findings, sequencing ideas logically and using pertinent descriptions, facts, and details to accentuate main ideas or themes; use appropriate eye contact, adequate volume, and clear pronunciation.

SL.2.5 Include multimedia components (e.g., graphics, images, music, sound) and visual displays in presentations to clarify information.

SL.2.6 Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate. (See grade 6 language standards 1 and 3 for specific expectations.)

- Lessons in the Teacher’s Guide and digital edition prompt students to dive deeper into topics and texts through research. Students are then asked to present findings to the class, maintaining appropriate eye contact and volume level.

- Prompts can be used to encourage students to dig deeper into topics covered in the student magazine and digital edition. Students can display their knowledge through visual and multimedia components.

- Audio read-alouds in the digital edition, voiced by actors—not a computer program—model fluid reading.

- Think questions, Teacher’s Guide lessons, and other prompts stimulate discussion. Students are asked to follow particular guidelines, including using academic English and domain-specific vocabulary.

L.1.1 Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.

a. Ensure that pronouns are in the proper case (subjective, objective, possessive).

b. Use intensive pronouns (e.g., myself, ourselves).

c. Recognize and correct inappropriate shifts in pronoun number and person.

d. Recognize and correct vague pronouns (i.e., ones with unclear or ambiguous antecedents).

e. Recognize variations from standard English in their own and others’ writing and speaking, and identify and use strategies to improve expression in conventional language.

L.1.2 Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.

f. Use punctuation (commas, parentheses, dashes) to set off nonrestrictive/parenthetical elements.

g. Spell correctly.

- Writing prompts in the Teacher’s Guide and student magazine provide opportunities for students to demonstrate their understanding of grammar.

- Audio read-alouds and videos in the digital edition model standard English grammar and usage.

- Test Prep with TFK, issued two times per school year, assesses students’ responses to short-answer writing prompts.

- The student magazine and digital edition can be used as exemplar texts for proper capitalization, punctuation, and spelling.

- Test Prep with TFK, issued two times per school year, provides opportunities to assess students’ command of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.

- Power Words in the student magazine and digital edition serve as reference material.

- Reproducible worksheets and Skill Set activities in the student magazine provide students with writing opportunities and teachers with a way to assess student work.
